CURE OF BRONCHITIS

J. C. CHAMBERLIN, M.D.—This is to certify that three years ago I became afflicted with Neuritis of the Neck about cervical vertebrae, it was so bad for the want of breath that it was very difficult to speak, and in the night time frequently threw clothes off and raising in the bed to keep from smothering. I tried three of the most eminent physicians in the West of Northwestern for about a year, but without any benefit; in fact, I continued getting worse time. At last I was advised to try the Great Kidney Remedy. I bought a bottle and took it, and in a few days I noticed a great improvement, and continued to use it until I had taken three bottles to my satisfaction. I found that it was as well as I had been previous to my illness, and have been since.

Wonderful Cure of Lung Disease

J. C. CHAMBERLIN, Esq.,—New York.—This is the only my wife was very low with Lung Disease. Doctor had given her up. He said her lungs were tuberculed, and medicines could not help her. In resort, I purchased a bottle of the Great Healer, Remedy. At the expiration of two days, she was decidedly better. She continued to use it so rapidly that by the time she had taken one it was able to sit up. By the continuance of it she was perfectly restored to health.
